

The image displays three different models of portable toilet units. The top-left unit is a compact, white, box-like structure with a white lid and a white base. The bottom-left unit is a smaller, light-colored wooden box with a white lid and a white base. The large unit on the right is a full-sized portable toilet with a dark wood-grain exterior and a white interior. It features a large white lid, a white base, and a white tank. The tank has a label that reads "TANK ASSEMBLY PART NO. 17000-0001". The large unit also has a white door at the bottom with a circular vent.
